Aresteas, a 2017 ketch-motor sailor built by Yildizlar, is the epitome of luxury. Designed by Fuat Turan and RINA-classed, this 50.75-meter yacht seamlessly combines classic elegance with modern amenities. With a laminated cold-molded wood hull and timeless white exterior, she exudes sophistication.

Accommodating up to 12 guests in six beautifully appointed staterooms, including a master suite and two VIP suites, Aresteas ensures comfort and privacy for all. The interior, designed by Aldo Viani, boasts a spacious main saloon, a bar, and a private home cinema with a 75-inch Sony TV and Denon surround sound.

Outdoors, Aresteas offers sunbathing platforms, a Jacuzzi, and a top-deck bar for alfresco dining. With two aluminum masts and twin 1,205HP MTU diesel engines, she offers both graceful sailing and power cruising, with a range of 3,050 nautical miles.

Aresteas is a symbol of maritime excellence and is currently available for charter in West Mediterranean
